POP GOES ALTONA!

Don't leave it to the oldies

Altona Council seems almost certain to open its 1971 Arts Festival with a pop concert.

And the councillors who made this decision at Altona's last council meeting seem far removed from the modern pop scene.

One of the councillors who supported the idea, Cr. P. J. Lynch, said in the course of the discussion: "I don't want to see this done by the oldies."

"I would like to see the young people have their say."

The discussion was sparked off by Cr. P. A.
Burns, who holds the Cultural Activities portfolio.

He said: "We are considering a pop concert to open the Arts Festival."

"Does council consider that a pop concert would be an appropriate event to start the festival?"

"I would like to have the opinion of councillors."

"The proposal is that this concert would be held on the evening of Saturday, April 17, at Grant Reserve."

The Mayor, Cr. Doug Grant: "Perhaps it would be better to wait until the young people who intend running this concert come up with a tangible proposition."

Cr. Burns: "These things need time and money to organise. The young people concerned must have the time they need to prepare for this pop concert."

"I move that council agree in principle to holding the concert on April 17."

Cr. W. Crofts seconded
the motion.

Cr. Lynch: "Perhaps it would be more advisable for three or four of the young people concerned to come before a council committee to discuss the way in which the concert would be held."

Cr. Grant: "We have heard what is intended. I don't think much purpose would be served in having them attend a council committee."

Cr. Lynch: "Above all things I don't want to see it done by the oldies. I would like to see the young people have their
say."

"My point is that the people who are putting on this show are young people, and they don't seem to be represented."

● Council carried the motion of Crs. Burns and Crofts that they agree in principle to the concert being held.

Altona office for Star to give better service

The Star is opening an office in the Kiema Press building, Pier Street, on March 22.

The move is intended to provide readers with an even better news coverage, and advertisers with a more streamlined service.

The office will be open two days a week, on Mondays and Tuesdays.

Mr. Gary Smith will be in charge, handling items
submitted by club correspondents, general news items, reports on 21st
birthdays, engagements,
weddings — anything that Star readers care to submit.

The Star wants to give its readers all the news.

No item will be too small or unimportant for publication.

Gary invites representatives from sporting organisations, social clubs, churches, businessmen's groups to call in, or phone (398 2277) to discuss regular publication of reports.

On the advertising side,
Gary will assist clients with copy for display and classified ads.

For those who wish,
copy will be accepted at Westgate Publications, 260
Barkly Street, Footscray.

The management welcomes the opportunity to establish a more personal contact with the people of Altona.

It is confident the cooperation we receive will lead to a bigger and better newspaper.

Our new office is in the Kiema Press building, Pier Street, and our new telephone number is 398 2277.

Post office promised

North Altona will have a new Post Office later this year.

A contract has been let for a single storey brick building on the north side of Duke Street.

It is expected to cost about $105,000 and will probably be completed by October.

The new building has a tastefully designed exterior of clay brick with aluminium door and window frames.

Included in the new facilities will be four public telephone booths.

Contractors for the job
are Alert Constructions

CLINIC TIMES CHANGED

Staffing problems at Altona Dental Clinic have made it necessary to change the days on which it is open.

The clinic will now be open on Mondays and Tuesdays instead of on Mondays and Wednesdays.

Altona Town Clerk, Mr. J. W.
Waters, in his report to the last council meeting said:

"This arrangement suddenly came into effect in the last week in February."

"The consequences of this meant inconvenience to a number of people who had appointments for the Wednesday and were not notified by the Dental Hospital.

Dr. William Smith, of the Dental Hospital, has apologised for this inconvenience which was caused when the part-time Wednesday officer notified that she was no longer available for duty.

"It is hoped that the service will now be stabilised on Monday and Tuesday, and any alterations for the future can be notified to all people concerned."

A genius with us

Cr. C. W. Carlsson, who holds Altona Council's Social Welfare and Health portfolio, opened his report at council's last meeting, by saying: "I have some good news for you."

Another unidentified councillor quietly interjected: "That's a relief."

Cr. Carlsson, undeterred, added: "I am referring to the pensioners' firewood money allocated for this quarter. Please believe me when I tell you we have a genius in our midst. "The genius is in the person of the deputy town clerk, Mr. Syd. Fell.

"In some way or another he has managed to reduce the cost of this firewood by one-third.

"This means a saving to council of $230."

Councillors seemed delighted at the news.

Incidentally council granted Mr. Fell permission to attend the civil defence school at Macedon.

Mr. Fell (pictured above) was shire secretary at Warracknabeal before being appointed recently as deputy town clerk of Altona.

ALL HELP FOR SISTER CITY

Altona Council will give all possible support to Williamstown Council in its efforts to have the rifle range returned from the army.

This was decided at Altona Council's last meeting after receiving a letter from Williamstown about the range.

The letter said in part: "For many years the council has made constant representation to the Minister for the Army to have the range area released.

"It comprises some 300 acres and would be used for residential and foreshore public recreation development.

SUPPORT

"Williamstown Council would greatly appreciate the support of other western suburbs' councils in its efforts."

Cr. P. J. Lynch: "This council fully supports Williamstown in its efforts to get back an area which is rightfully theirs.

"I move that we accede to Williamstown Council's request and write to the Minister for the Army supporting their claim.

Cr. W. Crofts: "I second that motion. We should do everything we possibly can to lend our support.

"It would only help the entire area if this land was released for residential and recreation purposes."

● The motion was carried.

Cr. CROFTS

WELCOME WARM TO SCHOOL WORKERS

Altona's Mayor, Cr. Doug. Grant, welcomed to the last council meeting members of the school council, Mothers' Club and staff of Altona North Primary School.

Cr. Grant said: "Thank you for your presence at this meeting.

"We are all well aware of the prowess of the students at Altona North Primary School.

"We are most grateful for the excellent work you are doing."

Then, in the steamy night, Cr. Grant in his full mayoral robes, added:

"Please feel free to remove your coats if you so desire."

Freeway lights cause trouble

Altona Council representatives with the City Engineer, Mr. R. Simmons, will have on-site discussions about the lighting on the Lower Yarra Freeway.

Council made this decision after receiving a letter from the Country Roads Board about lighting on the section of the freeway west of Williamstown Road.

The letter said: "There has been some delay in the supply of street lighting fittings from overseas and it will now be necessary to defer the opening to possibly near the end of March or beginning of April, 1971.

"You will be advised as soon as a firm date can be fixed."

Cr. W. H. Sommers, who holds Altona council's transport and communications portfolio, said:

"Without the proper lighting pedestrians are in danger.

"All precautions must be taken before the freeway is in operation.

"I move that all lights be in operation before the freeway is in operation."

Cr. W. Crofts: "I'll second that, but I wonder if Cr. Sommers would add to his motion that we should have an on-site discussion with the CRB and the City Engineer about this."

Cr. Sommers agreed to the suggestion and the motion was carried.

Cr. P. J. Lynch: "I'll go along with that as long as this doesn't hold up the opening of the freeway."

LIVING LIFE DANGEROUSLY

Figures released at Altona Council's last meeting indicate that children are inclined to live more dangerously as they become teenagers.

The figures are a count of pedestrians using the subway under Millers Road near MacArthurs Road.

They reveal that 53 per cent. of primary school children use the underpass, and 47 per cent. of the primaries do not use it.

When one goes to the secondary school children, the figures present a vastly altered picture.

● Only 10 per cent. of the secondaries use the underpass, and 90 per cent. do not use it.

YOUNG SALTS FROM ALTONA

A life afloat holds endless appeal for Kay and Bruce Bartlett, late of Altona.

They now live somewhere on Port Phillip Bay — probably around Williamstown.

Their change of address is the result of years hard labor by Bruce Bartlett, who has just completed building a 42-foot cement yacht in his backyard.

After a three year absence from the sea, the Bartlett's are now living on a boat again.

It's not a new experience for them.

They've been sailing the Queensland Coast for some time in a 35 foot trimaran and their maritime experience includes a voyage to New Guinea.

This time, however, the situation has changed a little.

Instead of two people living on board there are four.

Besides finding time and money to build a boat, the Bartlett's have produced two charming daughters during their stay ashore.

But Mrs. Bartlett says three years on land is long enough and doesn't compare with a life at sea.

...living in the boat

Bruce built

Then they'll make plans for their next journey.

Kay Bartlett says they intend to sail further afield, and the target for the next voyage is New Zealand.

This time sailing across will be a family affair.

But until then, Mrs. Bartlett, will be one of the few western suburbs housewives who uses a rowboat for a shopping basket.

NO EXPENSES

She adds: "You meet lots of different people, have no expenses except for food and clothing and it's different."

"It adds a bit of interest to life and you know you can always get a house if you want to."

A few hours later, the Bartlett's new home was gently eased into the water off Williamstown and immediately they began moving in.

Living on board doesn't mean they'll be roughing it.

There's a separate bedroom for the children in the yacht, sleeping quarters for the owners and it even comes with a built-in bath.

The couple plan to live off Williamstown until they save enough for a mast and other fittings.

Val's Column

Hello Girls,

If you are unhappy with the way you look, why not change it? Today, applying makeup is easier than ever before because of the wide variety of products available and the techniques for using them. Perhaps your present appearance is due to faulty makeup methods which you have not taken time to correct. Lack of practice and patience causes many makeup errors.

A must of course, for many women is daily cleansing and skin care. After a thorough cleansing of your face with your favorite skin cleanser then freshener or astringent apply your moisturizer — for day long protection — and a smoother surface which is easier to apply your foundation color on to. Use as-shade that matches and compliments your skin coloring.

Avoid a mask-like appearance, continue foundation slightly below jaw and chin blending into your neck area and around under ears. Using a little less here so as to fade out into the skin. Now, if you apply powder — translucent, loose tinted, or pressed powder, fluff on sparing amount — remember this is only to set your foundation and give a matte finish. Use cotton wool and a downward pat all over to settle facial down and wipe away any excess color. Now what you are going to do? Next week we will talk of eyebrows, eyes and mouths.

Fragrance makes a woman.

Fragrance surrounds you with a soft, strictly feminine cloud that makes you hard to forget. It boosts your morale, gives you confidence, a well dressed feel perfectly groomed.

Smart women wear it always.

Petrochem action held over

Altona Council will defer action against Altona Petrochemical Company to a date to be fixed on the question of the company's noise and odor pollution.

But the matter will be kept under constant surveillance by the city's two health inspectors, who will report back to council.

Cr. W. L. Crofts, who holds the pollution portfolio, told council's last meeting that he had received several letters and phone calls about the pollution.

He added: "One phone call was at 6 o'clock on a Sunday morning, and the residents were quite surprised when I arrived there 20 minutes later."

"What we have asked people to do is to sign affidavits about their complaints on this pollution source."

Cr. Crofts said that council has served a cause notice to Petrochemical on February 15, 1971.

He added: "After that, council received the plant manager in committee."

"Council also decided to collect information from residents in the area."

"The notice to Petrochemical expired on March 1, 1971, and the Health Inspector has reported that there has been some improvement."

"His inspection was made without the knowledge of the company."

"We also received an assurance from the company that improvement could be made about the source of some sort of odor."

"Our investigations have led us to believe that in the opinion of the inspectors these odors are offensive."

"We, as a council, must consider whether our notice to the company has been complied with."

"We must also consider that some time has been allowed."

"In addition we must take into account all the affidavits we have from various residents."

Cr. Crofts said that three courses of action were open to council:

● If council decided the order had been complied with no action would be necessary.

● If council decided the order had not been complied with all relevant information should be sent to the city's legal advisers.

● Council could consider the affidavits it already had and give the company time to comply with the show-cause notice.

Cr. Crofts said: "The last course is the one I favor, and I do not think that by following this course we are taking the matter too lightly."

"I feel it should be discussed with our health inspectors, but the matter should be deferred and we should continue to collect evidence."

"To the best of my knowledge there has never been a case in Australia of a council taking a company to court over an odor."

He moved that action be deferred, but health inspectors continue to collect evidence and report.

Cr. P. J. Lynch: "I will second that. It will give us a chance to collect more evidence, and possibly give us a stronger case."

Kitty's an old trooper

By MICHAEL STEVENS

They say old vaudeville stars never die. Kathleen Beatrice Mitchell (known to all and sundry as Kitty), who's sung and danced in every hall in Melbourne, certainly doesn't belie this theory.

At 77 she still retains all the sparkle and energy, wit and personality that would have been a trademark of her stage career.

Kitty still has that bounce in her step and the ability to launch into one of her favorite numbers at the drop of a hat.

One of her proudest possessions, in a house packed with valuable antiques, is a Zinker and Schultes piano, which was purchased second-hand before World War I.

Beautiful

The piano can be played manually or by electricity. "I'm very proud of this. She's beautiful you know," Kitty said.

A widow (her husband, Alfred James Mitchell died 10 years ago in Adelaide while the couple were returning from a trip to Darwin), Kitty has lived in Queen Street, Altona, for the past 37 years, and to quote her own words:

"I've loved very minute of it."

Her husband worked at the Yarraville sugarworks for 44 years.

Kitty is well known throughout Altona for her charity work.

Each year she organises a concert, proceeds of which go to the spastic children, and she also donates dolls (which she dresses and decorates herself) to many institutions. They in turn are offered as prizes in special efforts and have raised many hundreds of dollars.

Vice-president

A vice-president of the Altona Musical Society, she was presented with the Society's first certificate of fellowship "for outstanding service" and this holds pride of place on the sittingroom mantelpiece.

She is also a member of the Elderly Citizens' Welfare committee, and a member of the Altona Historical Society.

Kitty has always been a trooper on the stage, dating back to the days when she won her first medal for song and dance at the Collingwood Town Hall when she was 10 years old.

She was taught step-dancing by the father of Harry Leggett, in Johnson Street, Collingwood, and ballet by Lily Allison, of Fitzroy.

Light opera

Kitty also sang and danced at the old Cyclorama (a circular-type music hall on the present St. Vincent's Hospital site) with such old-time favorites as Walter Howgate, Emily Benson and Clarence Clements.

She was a member of the Bands-men's English Light Opera Company, sang with an opera company in New Zealand and appeared at the Tivoli.

Five years ago Kitty also appeared as a comedienne on television on a programme called, Making a Star.

Her family had a musical history and it was only natural this would lead her to the stage, but her performances nowadays are limited to the annual concerts.

Travelled

Another of her proudest treasures is a long-playing record featuring herself singing two songs made popular by Gladys Moncreif. This was made in New Zealand in January, 1951.

Kitty has travelled around the world and all over Australia. She hopes to visit friends in Ireland in August later this year.

She has two children, Barry, who lives in Chadstone, and Iris (Mrs. McDonald), who lives in Fern Tree Gully, five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

By her own admission, a very successful property owner, Kitty is also shrewd enough not to divulge too much of her business deals.

We found her a merry soul with a kind word for most people, down-to-earth and straightforward.

Council moves over pecuniary interest

Altona Council will move for clarification on the law which requires councillors to leave the chamber if they have a pecuniary interest in anything being discussed.

It will write through the local MP Mr. L. Floyd (MLA, Williamstown) to ask the Parliamentary Draftsman to reconsider the legislation.

Council decided this at its last meeting after the deputy town clerk, Mr. Syd Fell, raised the matter.

He said: "This might be an appropriate time to discuss the question of councillors leaving the chamber when their pecuniary interests are involved."

● Cr. W. Crofts and Cr.

J. Stewart moved successfully that council write to the Parliamentary Draftsman through the local member to consider this legislation again.

SEAHOLME SEWERAGE UNLIKELY

It was unlikely the north-eastern section of Seaholme would be sewered in the near future, Mr. Alex Knight, MLC, said yesterday.

Mr. Knight said he had made representation to the Board of Works to have sewerage extended into the Seaholme area.

He added: "The acting secretary of the board told me the sewerage system must be extended from the western section of Altona, and work will proceed as rapidly as funds permit."

"On the anticipated rate of work it is unlikely that the north-eastern sections of Seaholme will be sewered in the near future."

Stole for his 11 children

— Court told

A man on a stealing charge was trying to feed and clothe his family on $6 social service payments a week.

A police witness told this to Williamstown Court last week.

CONSTABLE TERENCE HAYDEN, of Altona police, said he believed that this was the only reason the man stole from an Altona supermarket.

The man, pleaded guilty to a charge of having stolen a pair of scissors and packets of bacon and fish, worth $1.32, from the Supa-Valu Store in Altona.

Constable Hayden told the court he was called to the supermarket by the store detective.

The store detective said he caught the man outside the store with a packet of bacon for which he had not paid.

He said the man admitted taking the things, but said he was just "trying to save a few bob."

Constable Hayden added that the man told him he had been off work for a while, and with 11 children he needed anything he could get.

After he had finished giving evidence, Constable Hayden spoke from the body of the court.

He said the man was receiving only $26 social service benefits each week, and that the rent for his house was $20.

Mr. Clancy, SM, replacing the man on a $50 good behavior bond for 12 months, said that he accepted the fact he was in financial difficulties.

He said that the man should have an opportunity to show that he would not steal again.

NEW BASEBALL SECRETARY FOR NEWPORT

Popular Newport Baseball Club player and Altona resident, Barry Howard, is the new secretary of the club.

He was elected last Sunday at the club's annual meeting — the first such meeting to be held in the new clubrooms.

The clubrooms were opened recently on the new ground at Park Crescent, Williamstown.

The good attendance and keen interest shown in club affairs at this meeting augurs well for the future of Newport baseball club.

Due to pressure of other commitments Bob Anderson was unable to accept the job again after eight years in the position.

Retiring secretary, Bob Anderson, presented a very comprehensive report of the club's 1970 activities.

He was elected a vice-president.

Other office-bearers are: President, Mr. W. R. Gledhill, vice-presidents, R.

Anderson, B. Clearly, H. Douglas, J. Dunstone, C. James, secretary B. Howard, 38, Chifley Avenue, Altona (phone 398 1928); assistant secretary, Mr. J. Merriman; treasurer, Mr. J. Cornish; junior manager, Mr. S. McKay; social secretary, Mr. G. R. Murdoch, property steward, Mr. J. Smith, Press correspondent, Mr. A. Solmano; auditors: Messrs. J. Richardson and B. Shields.

The Old Players' Association will hold its annual meeting at the new clubrooms on Friday, March 5, at 8 p.m. All welcome.

Next Saturday, at 7.30 p.m., the Ladies' Auxiliary will commence the year with a social night.

Members and friends are urged to attend in force to make this night a success. Ladies are asked to bring a plate.

The bride, formerly Miss Marilyn Mathews, is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Mathews of 7 Basil Street, West Newport.

The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Tatlow of Anzac Crescent, Williamstown.

The bride wore an all-white Edwardian frock and carried white carnations. She was attended by her two sisters, Fay and Denise.

The groom was attended by his brothers Keith and Colin.

The Rev. E. Withington officiated at the wedding.

The reception was held at the Central Hotel, Altona.

Keep violence out of marriage—SM

A magistrate told a married couple in Williamstown Court they should be old and mature enough to settle their matrimonial problems without violence.

Mr. Clancy SM, was addressing Robert Giles Lester and Alma Lester, both of Junction Street, Newport.

Robert Lester had pleaded not guilty to a charge of having unlawfully assaulted his wife.

Alma Lester told the court that on March 8 she and her husband had been arguing all day.

She said that about 11 p.m. the arguments became worse and Lester started calling her names and taunting her.

the assault charge, because he had only put his hands on his wife's shoulders to stop her from leaving.

He added that she always got very excited and wanted to leave at the smallest upset.

Lester said it was her house too, and she should be in it.

He was quite prepared to sign it over to her completely.

Mr. Clancy said the circumstances of the case were such that Lester's action amounted to assault, although no physical injury was done.

● Placing Lester on a 12-month $20 good behavior bond, Mr. Clancy said that this would give the couple a chance to sort out their problems.

CAR PARKED

Mrs. Lester said she could not get her car out of the driveway because Lester's car was parked in the way.

She said she called the police and started packing to leave.

She added that Lester kept trying to stop her, and that she had to get away from him because she could not stand it any more.

From the body of the court, Lester said it had only been domestic argument.

He did not want his wife to leave and had only placed his hands on her shoulders to stop her.

HINDRANCE

Constable Bernard Dunne, of Newport police, told the court he was called to the house about 6.30 p.m.

He said Mrs. Lester was trying to pack, and Lester kept hindering her.

Constable Dunne said he told Lester several times that he could not stop his wife leaving if she wanted to.

He added that when he told Lester he would be arrested for unlawful assault, Lester said to his wife: "Now are you satisfied. I'm going to be locked up."

Lester, who spoke from the body of the court, said he could not understand

COUNCIL CLOCKED

The Williamstown Branch of the Australian Natives' Association has offered to present council with a clock to commemorate the association's centenary.

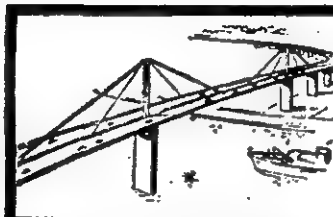

The association plans to install the clock in Ferguson Street and has written to council asking if they will pay for an electric cable to be installed, and for operating expenses.

The association will pay for the clock and its installation.

The centenary date is April 24, and the association wants the clock operating and handed over to council by then.

At last week's council meeting Cr. Ron Dawes moved that council accept the clock, and that a report should be made on expenses to council's next Public Works meeting.

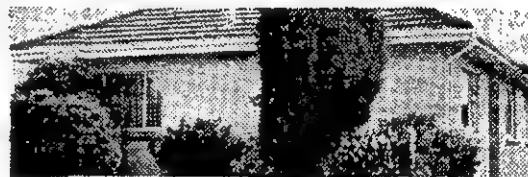

He also moved that council write to the association, thanking them for their public spirited offer.

Altona collapse, but fight back

Altona collapsed dismally for 82 against Spotswood in the VJCA C Grade final last Saturday, but then fought back magnificently to hold their opponents to 88 in their first innings.

Both sides got away to sound starts — Spotswood were 1/53 — but could not maintain their advantage.

Altona's wrecker was off-spinner Geoff Stephenson who took 6/30 off 15 overs.

With Altona 0/11 in its second innings, the match is poised at an interesting stage and could go either way.

Altona won the toss and decided to bat on a good wicket.

Joyce and Bibby put on 45 for the first wicket before Bibby was out lbw.

JOYCE GOES

Joyce was next to go with the addition of another nine runs and this was the beginning of a dramatic collapse in which Patton, Evans, and Kirk were dismissed with the score at 56.

Hansen and Wilson steadied the innings a little by adding 15 runs before Hansen was out to an excellent catch at square leg.

From 6/71, the remaining batsmen, of which Wilson was the only one to show any form, added only another 11 runs before the innings closed — a far cry from their 279 in the semi-final.

GOOD START

Spotswood started well and after six overs had 29 runs on the board.

Rod Gray, who had 12 runs taken off one over, achieved the first break through when Bibby held a good catch in the covers.

Frank Kirk, brought into the scoring rate, but was unable to break through.

Gray was relieved by Stephenson and he too had trouble in beating the bat.

RESULTS

With the score at 1/53 both bowlers changed ends and this brought immediate results when Evans stumped Weatherley off Kirk's bowling. Stephenson also obviously relished the change and in the space of four overs collected four wickets to put Altona back in the game with Spotswood 6/57.

Two great catches taken by Patton and Hancock also inspired the Altona side and Patton was also to the fore in helping Kirk to take the seventh wicket to fall.

A dogged eighth wicket stand saw Spotswood go to a three-run lead but then Stephenson broke through again to wind up the innings with the opposition only six runs ahead.

Wicket takers were Geoff Stephenson with 6/30 off 15 overs, and Frank Kirk 3/23 off 18 overs.

With 13 minutes of play remaining the Altona stand saw Spotswood go to a three-run lead but then Stephenson broke through again to wind up the innings with the opposition only six runs ahead.

Wicket takers were Geoff Stephenson with 6/30 off 15 overs, and Frank Kirk 3/23 off 18 overs.

'TOWN LOSES SEMI BY FIVE RUNS

After seeming certain of victory, Williamstown collapsed dismally for 5 runs.

With 'Town on 5 for 151 and chasing only 168, the game took an amazing turn.

The sixth wicket fell at 168 and the remaining four went for only 12 runs and 'Town was tumbled out of the finals.

The wreckers were Bob Profitt, with 5 for 59 off 24 overs, assisted by spinner Jim Conole with 4 for 50 off 25 overs.

On the first day Port Melbourne were dismissed for 168, with leg spinner Tom Seal getting the excellent figures of 6 for 41 off 20 overs. Keeper Doug Gibson was in brilliant form, helping in five dismissals.

Don McKenzie was best in support to Seal with 2 for 37 off 14 overs. Eighteen-year-old Len Barnett was Port Melbourne's saviour, with a fine 66.

Great batting by Barry McConnell, 37, and Bob Ferris 31, put 'Town into a good position.

Noel Macleod 25, and John Peters appeared to ensure 'Town's victory.

But disaster struck and the lower order batsmen were shot out.

In spite of its disappointing finish, 'Town had a good season.

Captain coach John Peters is to be congratulated on his efforts in developing such an excellent side, and reaching the finals in his first season.
